IN THE COURT OF APPEAL OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

THIRD APPELLATE DISTRICT

(Glenn)

----

THE PEOPLE,

Plaintiff and Respondent,

v.

DONNA LYNNE ROSSI,

Defendant and Appellant.

C046777

(Super. Ct. No.
03SCR00698)

Defendant Donna Lynne Rossi entered a negotiated plea of guilty to felony child endangerment (Pen. Code, § 273a, subd. (a)) in exchange for dismissal of the remaining counts: possession of methamphetamine (Health & Saf. Code, § 11377, subd. (a)), possession of drug paraphernalia, a misdemeanor (Health & Saf. Code, § 11364), and possession of less than 28.5 grams of marijuana, a misdemeanor (Health & Saf. Code, § 11357, subd. (b)).

The trial court sentenced defendant to state prison for the midterm of four years, awarded twelve days of presentence custody credit and imposed an $800 restitution fine and an $800 parole fine.

Defendant appeals. Her request for a certificate of probable cause (Pen. Code, § 1237.5) was denied.

We appointed counsel to represent defendant on appeal. Counsel filed an opening brief that sets forth the facts of the case and requests this court to review the record and determine whether there are any arguable issues on appeal. (People v. Wende (1979) 25 Cal.3d 436.) Defendant was advised by counsel of the right to file a supplemental brief within 30 days of the date of filing of the opening brief. More than 30 days elapsed, and we received no communication from defendant. Having undertaken an examination of the entire record, we find no arguable error that would result in a disposition more favorable to defendant.

DISPOSITION

The judgment is affirmed.
